

Please join us for a very special
ART EXHIBITION

Art for God's Sake

is a juried, professional art show May 13-15, 2011, on the campus of St. Anastasia Roman Catholic Church in Troy.

Religious-themed work from well-known artists who have exhibited worldwide will be featured.

Our goal is to educate and inspire the community with sacred art, allowing people to spiritually connect and renew.

Special ticketed events are planned all weekend with proceeds to benefit the artists, the Canticle Café and the ministries at St. Anastasia

Opening Night Formal Gala.

- Wine tasting and hors d'oeuvres
- Live art performance (Splat Experience)
- Clergy, religious and featured artists will be present
- Musical performances include an original composition for Art for God's Sake
